REVERSE VERDICT

The Appellate Court Hands Down Decision in Powers-Howard Cases Today.

ONE DECISION UNANIMOUS

The Whole Court Agrees in the Howard Case, But Not so With Powers.

WHITE, PAYNTER AND HOBSON DISSENT

Frankfort, March 28.—The appellate court has brought in the long deferred and looked for decision in the Powers-Howard cases. The decision of the lower courts was reversed. In the Howard case the whole court concurred in the verdict but in the Powers case three judges, White, Painter and Hobson dissented. Howard and Powers were charged with conspiracy in the murder of Tobias Kent in the trial Powers was sentenced to life in the penitentiary and Howard was sentenced to die.

The decision in the Powers case holds that Taylor's pardon was not valid and the indictment was good, but it reverses the verdict and orders a new trial on grounds of erroneous instructions to the jury and incompetent testimony. The Howard case was reversed on the grounds of erroneous instructions to the jury, incompetent testimony and several minor points. Judge Burdell delivered the opinion in the Powers case and Judge Burman read the opinion in the Howard case.

CITY NOTES

Matters at a Standstill in Municipal Circles Today—No City Court.

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE

Moochers so Thick the Police Have to Disperse Them—The Saloons All Closed.

NOTHING SENSATIONAL TO DISTURB

There was no session of the police court today on account of the primary election. Several arrests, however, were made last night.

Now, alias Doc Davis, was arrested in the Clark River region, by Captain Henry Bailey and Officer Tom Potter last night on a charge of obtaining goods by false pretenses.

Mrs. Geo. Kemball alleges that the defendant went to her home in Howard last July and said he was called to the deathbed of his father eight miles away. He borrowed a suit from her, on which to make the trip and claims it has never been returned. After several fruitless attempts Davis was at last captured.

The prisoner says he took the suit for a debt, and that it died three weeks after he came into possession of it. His examining trial is set for tomorrow.

A quantity of brass was found in the possession of Jas. C. Lyon, white, last night by Officers Gray and Geunleus.

A negro named McClelland from Erlington, who was with him was also arrested, but released. Lyon is held as a suspect.

The brass was identified by Special Agent Lafayette as property of the Illinois Central. Lyon, who claims to be from Pittsburg, will be charged with petty larceny.

James Johnson was arrested last night by Captain Bailey and Lient. Moore for a plain drunk.

John Hamilton, was arrested by Officers Beallies and Prant for a breach of the peace.

The aggregation of "moochers" that thronged the street corners in the business portion of the city yesterday, and in fact for several days past, had to be dispersed by the police last evening. They were a disgrace to a community that boasts of police protection. Many of them were drunk and most of the others willing to be, and people in the pursuit of legitimate business could hardly get along the sidewalks for the obnoxious "bums."

Many of those who looked on the flowing bowl not wisely but too well last night were in desperate straits today, for the saloons were closed and they had a hard time finding anything to relieve that "tired feeling."

Every vehicle in the city was hired today by candidates and their friends. The use of vehicles on regular election is prohibited by law, but they may be used in primaries.

Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Saunders is an interested spectator at all police court sessions when he is in the city. There was never much police court where the major came from, Mayfield, and hence he finds Paducah's generally well stocked tribunal very entertaining.

THE WEATHER.

The forecast for tomorrow is for fair weather, stationary temperature.

PAUPERISM

The dread of the thrifty, the bane of any nation, is so easily prevented that there is small excuse for even the day laborer at small wages to ever reach the almshouse. For the well-to-do merchant or the man on a fair salary, it's a crime when life insurance is so cheap and the best companies offer so many good plans. Investment is a feature for the bachelor. See us about it.

JULIUS FRIEDMAN

FROM OLD KENTUCKY

A MURDERESS IN JAIL AT MEMPHIS, WAS BORN AND

Reared Here—Maggie McManus Shoots and Kills One of the Most Prominent Men in Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., March 28.—W. A. Hogin, at the head of Hogin & Co., brokers, died here last night from wounds received last night. He was shot the night before in the private apartments of Doris Noble by the latter, who claims he had been maintaining the flat for about three years.

Hogin started to the Lyceum theater with his wife and daughter. He left them at the door. Within ten minutes he was in the luxuriously furnished apartments of Miss Noble. They quarreled and the broker left the flat. He returned in five minutes and after a few words with the woman she shot him. The ball entered his right side. He became unconscious and remained in a half-conscious condition all day and died last night.

The woman, who is in jail, makes the following statement:

"A short time before the shooting Mr. Hogin came to my room. I was asleep, and he awoke me and accused me of being drunk. We fought awhile and he went away. He came back in the course of half an hour and renewed the quarrel. I was in my own room and Mr. Hogin was standing at the door. He had struck me and thrown me down, and I simply got my pistol to frighten him. When I took the pistol out of the washstand drawer he stepped through the door and closed it between us, but opened it immediately. I must have been crazy. I pointed the pistol at the door before him. In my excitement the pistol went off, and Mr. Hogin fell to one knee in the doorway. I realized then that the bullet had struck him, and throwing the pistol away, ran to him. He said something but I have forgotten the words. When I reached him he grappled with me and threw me to the floor. He tried to choke me. I got loose from him and ran down the stairs and across the street to telephone for a doctor. There was a phone in my room, but I was too excited to use it. I called to everyone to telephone for a doctor. I was scared to death, and expected him to die every minute. When I got back Mr. Hogin was on the bed. He had walked there and laid down. Then the officers came and I was arrested."

The woman's name is Maggie McManus, and she was born and reared in Paducah, coming here in 1894. Her father was a Paducah Mason, and when he died the young daughter was sent to the Masonic Home near Louisville. She escaped and came to Memphis, and married J. T. Ward. Her married life was an unhappy one, and she was granted a divorce. She met Hogin three years ago. Her mother still lives in Paducah, but has refused to come to Memphis in response to a telegram notifying her of her daughter's deed. Doris Noble is well known in this city. She has lived here about five years. During the past year she has been in several cutting scrapes. She was accused of cutting a woman named Golden, and also named Jones. She is slender of stature and about 25 years old, and is not considered pretty.

TRUE TO HIS FATHER.

Owensboro, March 28.—In the forcible entry and detainer case of Mrs. Sallie Scherer against R. M. Payne, now in progress in this city, Charles Payne, son of R. M. Payne, went to jail rather than reveal his father's whereabouts.

Aguinaldo Seems to be Not at all Depressed By His Capture.

BROUGHT ASHORE AT NOON

After a Good Deal of Sprinting the Wily Philippine Is Run Down.

PRISONER IN WARTHUR'S QUARTERS

Manila, March 28.—Aguinaldo is at last in the toils. He was brought ashore at noon today and is now a prisoner in General MacArthur's quarters. He seems very cheerful and chatted gaily with those around him, but had nothing of interest to say. He has led the soldiers a merry chase and there is much relief that he is at last captured. Just what effect this will have on the revolution is not known at present.

General Funston deserves the credit for the capture. He mapped out the plan of procedure and selected a number of picked men and turned the great trick.

NOT TO BE PUNISHED.

Washington, March 28.—Aguinaldo won't be punished for his part in the Philippine war, but will be held as a prisoner of war. The officials are very jubilant over the capture and are predicting the early termination of the war. General Funston comes in for great praise and he will receive a reward befitting his grand deed. He will most probably get a generalship in the regular army.

SUDDEN DEATH

Mr. W. P. Barnhill, the Stock Yard Man, Dies at Savannah, Tenn.

HE WAS THERE ON A VISIT

He Was Fifty-Four Years Old and One of Paducah's Most Worthy Citizens—Death From Pneumonia.

FUNERAL TO BE AT SAVANNAH

Mr. W. P. Barnhill, owner of the Barnhill Stock yards, died this morning at Savannah, Tenn., from pneumonia, after an illness of several days.

The sad news was a great shock to his friends here, many of whom did not know he was ill. Mr. Barnhill had been in ill health for the past six weeks, and about ten days ago, accompanied by his wife, went to his former home in Savannah with the hope of improving his health.

Malarial disorders developed into pneumonia, and he died about 7 o'clock this morning.

He was born in Hardin county, near Savannah, Tenn., in 1847, and spent the greater part of a useful life there. He came to Paducah six years ago, and established the stock yards at Thirteenth and Norton streets, and had since lived here. His son, Mr. W. P. Barnhill, Jr., was associated with him in business until his death last October in Texas.

Mr. Barnhill was a gentleman of refinement and affability, and had a wide circle of acquaintances here. He was universally liked, and was a citizen of means and enterprise, and had done much for Paducah since he took up his residence here.

The death of his son removed his only child. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Anna Barnhill, and several nephews, and a sister, Mrs. Baker, wife of Mr. Chas. Baker, of Baker, Eccles & Co., the wholesale grocers. The notice of his death was received by her this morning, and she will go to Savannah to attend the funeral.

The remains will be buried at Savannah, but no arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

AN I. C. DEAL.
WILL SECURE CONTROL OF TWO NORTHWESTERN ROADS.

New York, March 28.—It is stated today on authority that a deal for the acquisition of the Minneapolis and St. Louis and the Iowa Central by I. C. will shortly be closed. Negotiations have been pending for some time. The Illinois Central offered to guarantee 4 per cent on the common stock of the Minneapolis and St. Louis, while the owners of the latter held out for 5, claiming that the company is now earning upward of 7 per cent on the common. The plan is for the Minneapolis and St. Louis first to absorb the Iowa Central, with an exchange of Minneapolis and St. Louis stock for Iowa Central stock on an agreed basis.

There will be no trouble about the merger of the two smaller railroads, for both of them are controlled by the same group of capitalists. The acquisition of these two roads would give the Illinois Central an entrance into St. Paul and Minneapolis, and also give it better control of Iowa and Northern Minnesota territory. The Minneapolis and St. Louis has $6,000,000 of common and $4,000,000 of 5 per cent preferred. The Iowa Central has $3,512,000 of common and $5,670,000 5 per cent preferred. The deal in behalf of the Illinois Central is being conducted by E. H. Harri-man, who is one of the controlling men in that property.

HIGHER OFFICIALS.
WILL DECIDE THE QUESTION OF RAILROAD TRANSPORTATION FOR TROOPS—PADUCAH'S CHANCE GOOD.

The encampment of state militia will probably come to Paducah. Officials from Frankfort, now in the city, say Paducah's chances are better than those of any other city.

President Geo. Wallace, of the Street Railway company, was in Louisville yesterday in conference with District Passenger Agent Alfred Kalland, of the Illinois Central, but the latter decided that the rate of transportation for the troops, which is all that now prevents Paducah securing the encampment, will have to be fixed by a higher authority, hence it will be referred to Second Vice President J. T. Harahan.

END OF SUGAR WAR.
Toledo, O., March 28.—Though the suit in the supreme court of Ohio in the war between the Arbuckle and the American Sugar Refining company has not yet been withdrawn that action will be taken, and the bitter fight between the two companies is at an end. The exact terms of the agreement are not made public, but this much is known, both will continue to handle sugar and coffee and the price will be governed entirely by the price of the raw material.

Closing Out Sale

Our doors are open at retail prices to close out our large stock of Glass and Queensware, Lamps, Enamel and Tinware.

We reserve no part of it, but put everything under the hammer. Our entire business is to be changed, and to carry out our plan we must get rid of our present stock, and do it quickly.

A personal inspection is necessary if you are to know the kind of prices we are making. We can only quote a few in this space:

One lot of short dinner sets at $2.50 per set.
Full 35-piece dinner sets as low as $1.50 each.
Full 100-piece dinner sets as low as $4.00 each.
Genuine China 100-piece dinner sets at $10.00 each.
Haviland China 100-piece dinner sets at $12.00 each.

Steel Enamel wares are sold at prices of ordinary Tinware in many instances. This is a line of records, limited in quantity. Advertisements cost money, and to enumerate the entire list would entail an item of expense that a "no profit" sale would not justify. You will have to come to see us if you would know the extent of this sale.

DEADLINE ALL IN THE FAMILY.
From the Washington Post: Here's a little dolly dialogue that was overheard in a $24-a-month Capitol Hill mansion one evening last week:

She—Why, oh, why did I ever marry you?

He—Because I was a good thing.

She—You are becoming positively coarse.

He—Association.

She—You pay no attention whatever to my little waiars.

He—What's the use of chasing a car after you've caught it?

She—I believe you have been drunk again.

He—No such luck.

She—I'm in a rage.

He—Well, we'll do a sketch—so'm I.

She—I haven't been to the theater for two weeks.

He—You're in a sad story.

She—Brrr!

He—Ours is a peaceful home.

She—Are you going downtown tonight?

He—If I can swing you for care fare.

She—I have only $3 in my purse.

He—Fletty Green!

She—I saw a pair of high-heeled patent leathers today—reduced to $5—that I must and shall have.

He—D'ye see my men's brogans for $1.39?

She—Why don't you get shaved?

He—Waiting for pay day.

She—Don't you know the rent and the gas will be due this pay day?

He—Then I'll cut out the shav.

She—I wish I had never left mamma.

He—D'ye see my men's brogans for $1.39?

She—Other—others.

He—I have a good notion to go right back to her this minute.

He—Have you got an umbrella?

She—Oh, you—your government clocker! (Tears. Curtain.)

Mr. Thomas L. Hill, better known as Mr. "Lud" Hill, a well known tobacconist and drummer, died shortly after noon today at his home, 813 Madison street, from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of several days.

The deceased had lived in Paducah for nearly twenty years, and was a well known and respected citizen.

He was born October 21, at Bardonia, Ky., and was son of James and Elizabeth Hill, of Nelson and Harlan counties, Ky. His ancestors were among the early settlers of Kentucky.

He went to Danville, Ind., in 1864 to reside, where his father died. He returned to Nelson county and went to farming. In 1864 he moved to Spencer county, in 1869 back to Danville, Ind., thence to Ballard county, Ky.

In 1890 he was elected a justice of the peace for three years. On November 21, 1872, he married Miss Georgia Robinson, of this county, and shortly after they moved to McCracken county.

The Avalon, which was chartered some time ago by Chattanooga merchants to ply the Tennessee river between that city and Paducah, is doing a fine business. RAILROAD FOR SALEM.

PROPOSITION FOR ONE BEING CONSIDERED.

Salem, Ky., is to have a railroad, at least if what the Crittenden Press of Marion, says, is true.

According to trustworthy information the Press has gathered from the Commercial club of that booming town, as well as the general talk of the community, a number of Cleveland, Ohio, capitalists who are interested in the mining industries of Crittenden and Livingston counties, have made a proposition to the people of Salem, to construct a railroad from thence to Carrsville, provided they are given the right of way and a subscription of $2,500.

The promoters of the enterprise propose to see the $2,500 in making the preliminary survey, but will execute bond for its return to the donors, if the road is not built. This very liberal offer has naturally aroused great interest in Salem and along the proposed route, and the meeting last night was called for the purpose of raising the subscription and organizing for the purpose of securing the right of way. We go to press too early to report the result of the meeting, but it may be safely stated that the money will be forthcoming, and the other requirements complied with.

The people of Salem are enthusiastic over the outlook and will leave no stone unturned to secure the road. If the promoters do not want to build the road, they will have to give Salem a much harder nut to crack than they have placed under the trip hammer of enterprise.

KIDLING'S HOME.
Concord, N. H., March 28.—There is every indication that New Hampshire's long list of summer residents is to receive a notable addition in the person of Hadard Kidling. Last week a real estate dealer sold a beautiful building lot on the shore of Lake Spofford to a Mr. Howard, of Brattleboro, Vt. When the deed was made out it was to Mrs. Kidling, that the transfer was made, and this fact has set all southwestern New Hampshire agog with rumors.

Lake Spofford is a charming little sheet of water of 1,300 acres, situated in the town of Chesterfield, not far from the Connecticut river and the Vermont border.

FOR THE GRIP.

YOU HAVE HEARD OF MANY REMEDIES—DID YOU EVER TRY THIS ONE?

Everybody you meet on the streets nowadays either has just had the grip, is coming down with it or has a sure cure for it.

The disease has been a puzzle to physicians ever since its appearance several years ago and it is as much of a puzzle today as it was then. It exhibits such a variety of symptoms in different individuals and leaves such disastrous results after apparent recovery, that as yet its prevention and cure has baffled science.

However there is no doubt but that the grip is catarrhal in character and the leading symptom in nearly every case is increased secretion in the head and throat, to fact the first indications of the grip are those of a cold in the head which extends to
